Town's Rescue Mission

Mattapoisett Rescue Squad Seeks Local Support

After years of assisting the fire and police departments and providing emergency aid to accident victims in and around town, the Mattapoisett Rescue Squad is now looking to residents for help.

The nineteen-member squad is this year asking for residents to assist them through their annual fund drive to purchase a new rescue vehicle to replace the existing Rescue 1 truck. Although this effort will be part of a three-year plan to raise an estimated $150,000 for a medium duty rescue vehicle, the members of the Rescue Squad are very optimistic about the generosity of the residents they serve.

"This drive is the mainstay that keeps us going every year," said squad member John DeCosta Jr. "The people of Mattapoisett have been very good to us in past years and I'm confident they'll be behind us on this."

Realizing that recent years have been somewhat difficult in terms of finances, the squad members long considered whether the time would be right to purchase such a big money item — but both past experience and the increased need for a larger and more modern vehicle dictated that it had to be done.

"Last year we purchased a Rescue Alive Ice Rescue device through the support and generosity of local residents," said Mr. DeCosta. "But we don't even have room to keep that equipment in the rescue vehicle. If we get a call for an ice rescue mission, we have to pack it separately."

Formed in 1972, the Mattapoisett Rescue Squad was started essentially to assist in motor vehicle accidents within town limits, but its duties have since expanded to include fire support, searches, industrial accidents, ice and cold water rescues, containment of hazardous material, environmental protection, oil spill response, confined space rescue, and command post operations. With only ten members that year, the squad responded to some twenty calls.

Today, twelve of the nineteen volunteers are certified Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT's) and the group made an estimated 218 runs last year alone. With the increase in both calls and the number of responsibilities now placed on the squad, the need for a larger and more efficient rescue vehicle is great.

And since this strictly volunteer force relies on town funding only for insurance and fuel, they are dependent on the generosity of residents for any major equipment purchases to keep them up and running.

"We've purchased all three of our past vehicles and equipment strictly through donations," said squad member Albert Sylvia. "Right now our present truck is 17 years old and by the time we finish raising funds for a new vehicle it will be 20 years old."

Other reasons which the squad has taken into consideration in deciding to solicit donations over the next few years for a new rescue vehicle include increasing maintenance costs involved with the current truck, an increased population in town residents — from 5,600 in 1977 to nearly 6,500 now, with an estimated 10,000 during the summer months — and the fact that traffic has also greatly risen with the number of residents.

In addition to their professional contributions to the town, the members of the Mattapoisett Rescue Squad also give blood to the blood bank at St. Luke's Hospital; provide extrication training to local EMT students; provide personnel and services for public functions such as the Fourth of July Road Race, Harbor Days, and the annual Halloween Parade; and conduct special traffic details during hurricane alerts or functions such as the triathlon.

The Rescue Squad has come a long way since its inception. That first truck purchased in 1972 was a small Ford Econoline van. A few years later, a converted bread truck was used to store what was then considered to be an excessive amount of equipment. The company's latest acquisition — a 1977 Ford van — was thought to have enough room to carry every conceivable piece of rescue equipment, according to squad member Walter Morgado.

"I thought we'd never fill that vehicle," he said.

Alas, as the town grows and the squad's duties multiply, the present vehicle can no longer accommodate the cumbersome rescue and safety equipment needed to respond to the numerous emergency calls.

"The town has really grown over the years," said Fire Chief Ronald Scott, who is in charge of the Rescue Squad. "With all the new industrial, state and federal regulations, it's been hard for the Rescue Squad to keep up with the present truck."

"We realize it's a lot of money," said Mr. DeCosta, "but that's why we're looking at a three-year plan. We think it will be easier to raise a large sum over a period of time."

A letter further explaining the Annual Fund Drive for the Mattapoisett Rescue Squad will be mailed to town residents on July 1. The dedicated volunteers who comprise the Rescue Squad ask for your support in keeping the town's Emergency Services updated and current.

Arthur McLain of the Mattapoisett Boat Yard and Jay Parker of Brownell Boatworks were also present.

Mr. Mach first discussed the proposal of adding a dinghy dock to the west side of the short wharf. In the process of its installation, one skiff space will be lost. Mr. Mach stated, however, that one skiff space had been reserved to accommodate the proposed change. Mr. Mach also said the project would pay for itself "in no time," as he expects to fit at least fifteen dinghies tied to the dock. The board gave its approval for Mr. Mach to look further into this project.

Concerning the boat ramp improvements, the board examined the preliminary draft blueprints. The improvements, which are part of a state project, include the replacement of the existing ramp and the addition of a 40-foot extension. Mr. Parker noted that for every foot of the extension there will be a 2- to 3-inch increase in depth. The town will then be able to

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

June 21, 1994

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, June 21 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Loretta B. Schaefer. Also present were Selectman Albert E. Winters, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, and Secretary Helene Craver.

After approving the minutes of the June 14 meeting with some corrections and signing and approving treasury warrant #51 for the week, the board unanimously voted to appoint Michael J. Still as an EMT with the town.

Harbormaster George Jennings and members of the Marine Resources Commission then came before the board to recommend the appointment of Charles Bradley as the town's new full-time Shellfish Officer. After receiving many applications for the $19,000 per year position, both Mr. Jennings and MRC members agreed that Mr. Bradley was best suited for the job.

"He's a good choice and I think he's very qualified for the position," agreed Selectman Winters.

Harbormaster Jennings also asked that Mr. Bradley be appointed as both an Assistant Harbormaster and Special Police Officer so that he would have the authority to assist in the event of an emergency. With that recommendation, the board unanimously appointed Mr. Bradley to all three positions.

"Charlie will be working with me for the first few weeks on the job," said Mr. Jennings. "I welcome him aboard and look forward to working with him."

"I'm very happy to have been selected," said Mr. Bradley, "and I look forward to working with everyone."

The new full-time Shellfish Officer will be working 40 hours per week for 32 weeks a year, and will revert to a 20-hour-a-week schedule for 20 weeks during the off-season.

Before leaving, Mr. Jennings also informed the board that three rugosa bushes which had been planted outside his office were donated by the Grade 3 class at Sippican School in memory of Groverman Cooke who died last November. "I just wanted to let everyone know that I appreciate the donation and they look very nice," he said. "Now, I'm going to see if I can find some shrubs to plant on the other side to balance it out."

The board next met with Bob Sanderson of the Parish Planning Committee at St.

unanimously approved the request. "I think it's wonderful that residents are taking advantage of the facilities there," said Chairman Schaefer, "and I certainly support such efforts."

Under incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman Schaefer noted a letter from Continental Cablevision advising the board that cable television rates for the company comply with the permitted rates under FCC regulations and there would be no increase in said rates at the present time.

Elizabeth Davis next wrote to the board on behalf of the Trustees of the Elizabeth Taber Library requesting that they be given permission to string lights on the gazebo between the library and the Town House on Thursday, June 23 for an "Evening of Music

Under the Stars" with the Harpoon Harmonizers. This event is a way for the staff and supporters of the library to say "thank you" to the town for supporting their climate control efforts. The board unanimously approved the request.

Chairman Schaefer next noted two letters regarding the ongoing "leash law" issue in the town — one in favor, one in opposition. Ms. Jo-Ann Watson wrote to the Selectmen supporting an imposed leash law in town. "It seems Mattapoisett has been bold enough to take action, I wish Marion would do the same," she wrote in her letter. "Marion should consider an action that would be enforced and effective."

But Warren G. Briggs wrote against such a measure. "No doubt some dogs don't deserve their freedom: as with any species. But we hope our Selectmen will not constrain all to control the few," he wrote.

Chairman Schaefer noted that both letters would be placed in a growing file for future consideration.

On a similar note, Assistant Dog Officer Susan King submitted a list of items to the board which she needs to assist her in her duties — among them, a barrier to keep between her and

As there is only $400 remaining in the Dog Officer's account, Town Accountant Karen Gomez recommended that only essential items be purchased now and the remaining could be purchased after the start of the new fiscal year on July 1. The board unanimously voted to follow this recommendation.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:20 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

June 20, 1994

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, June 20 at 7:00 pm by Chairman David L. Hughes. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman Michael C. Murphy, and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferreira.

After approving the minutes of the June 13 meeting with some corrections and a deletion at the request of Selectman Hawkes, Chairman Hughes opened the sealed bids received for the painting of the front and left side of Town Hall. Two sealed bids were submitted, which were read aloud by Chairman Hughes.

The first bid was from Jonathan E. Nutter of Rochester, who estimated that the painting of the building according to the specifics as advertised using the power washing method would cost $3,510, including all labor and materials. The same job utilizing the sand blasting method to remove the old paint would cost $4,930.

A second bid was submitted from Painting Services, Inc., also of Rochester. The bid only specified the power washing method at a total cost of $4,590.

Since there is still additional work to be done on the building — some of which is still pending bids — Selectman Murphy suggested that they wait to receive the other estimates before making a decision, as they've only budgeted a total of $7,000 for the entire project.

"I agree with (Selectman Murphy) that we should hold our recommendations until the bids for the other work come in," Selectman Hawkes said.

At 7:10 pm the board met with Police Chief Walter V. Denham to consider appointing two longtime town officials as Reserve Officers to the Police Department, both having recently completed training for said position. Chief Denham informed the board that both Edith Hedges Young, one of the town's constables, and William Chamberlain, the Town Moderator, had been awarded a certificate from the Massachusetts Training Council and, as such, both were well qualified to serve as Reserve Officers with the town.

Chief Denham also gave his personal recommendation that both should be appointed, which was unanimously echoed by the Board of Selectmen in a formal motion.

"I personally would like to thank both of them for taking the time and interest in the town," Selectman Hawkes said.

Mr. Chamberlain is following in his father's footsteps in becoming a police officer with the town. The late Joseph A. Chamberlain served 21 years with the Rochester Police Department from 1962 to 1983, and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 1967.

At 7:20 pm the board met with Mark Sebastyn, an Account Executive for NYNEX, and Shelley Burgio, a NYNEX Sales Manager, to discuss a new telephone plan proposal for the town offices. Mr. Sebastyn noted that having reviewed the telephone records and bills of the town, he would suggest they consider the new Centrex system. This new, state-of-the-art system would allow the town free intercom calling between all municipal offices (by dialing a three- or four-digit extension), call transfer between locations, call forwarding, and call waiting.

Mr. Sebastyn noted that the town's potential savings by switching over to the more versatile Centrex system could reach $6,010.80 over the course of the next ten years (an average of about $50 a month).

Chairman Hughes said that although the system does offer some additional services and would cost a little less than their current package, much of what is being offered would not be used. "About 90 percent of what this (new system) has to offer wouldn't be necessary for us at this time," he said, "because most of the positions in town are part-time ... people aren't always available to answer their calls."

In fairness to the proposal, however, the board agreed to take the suggestion under advisement and agreed to let the Town Hall employees and Administrative Secretary Shirley Ferreira decide whether it was worth switching over the new system. "They're the ones who use the phones every day," agreed Selectman Murphy.

Chairman Hughes assured the NYNEX representatives that they would be contacted either way within the next few weeks.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman Hughes noted receipt of a check from SEMASS in the amount of $141,365.62 for the month of May. The Division of Local Services also sent a correction on the town's recently-received Cherry Sheet figures regarding a Net Charges line item under Motor Vehicle Excise Tax.

Town Accountant Claudette Coutu also sent a memo to the board and all town departments advising them that the deadline for submitting any transfer requests to be paid out of the current fiscal year budget is July 8, 1994. As there is a minimal amount left in the Reserve Fund, she wants to make sure that the budget is

Ms. Coutu also advised that all bills to be paid out of the current year must be submitted by July 7 at 12:00 noon. If bills are not received by that date and time, they will not be paid out of the current budget.

The board then signed and approved a transfer for the Dog Officer in the amount of $505, and a transfer of $5,000 to pay holiday wages and additional part-time employees with the Communications Center. Both transfers were pre-approved by the Finance Committee.

Selectmen also signed and unanimously approved payment of a legal invoice for Beauregard and Burke in the amount of $2,180 for services rendered in the case of Chevalier vs. Town of Rochester.

Lastly, the board signed and approved Chapter 90 Final Report and Local Aid Reimbursement forms for road work on Hartley Raod, Neck Road, and North Avenue. Chairman Hughes noted that the first payment of $120,000 from the state represented a 75 percent reimbursement and the second payment of $30,397.82 for chip seal represented a 100 percent reimbursement, all of which was also approved by Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge and Town Accountant Claudette Coutu.

Under New Business, the board discussed the placement of an article to appropriate an additional $50,000 for the pending repair work on the Mary's Pond Bridge. Ms. Coutu noted that the article would have to specify "raise and appropriate," as the money would be Selectman Hawkes suggested that Ms. Ferreira contact Town Counsel regarding the proper wording of said article to make sure that they don't get into any legal discrepancies, a motion which was made unanimous by her fellow board members.

As it stands now, Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge is hoping to get the money before the end of the summer, otherwise he may be faced with bidding out the project again. "Everyone that bid on (the bridge) project has other jobs scheduled," he said. "They were hoping to fit this one in between ... if the low bidder doesn't take the contract,

In Today's Mail, Chairman Hughes noted receipt of a letter from a person claiming damage was incurred to their motorcycle on North Avenue due to improper posting of road work being done. As a report was filed with the police, the board recommended that the matter be handed over to Town Counsel.

There being no other matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:55 pm.

Correction

A Letter to the Editor in last week's edition (June 17, 1994; Volume 3, Number 24) from Georgia Chamberlain in Rochester was incorrectly signed with Ms. Chamberlain's name above the title "Rochester Conservation Commission." Although Ms. Chamberlain is an advisor to the Rochester Conservation Commission, she submitted the letter on her personal stationery and was not rendering an opinion on behalf of the Conservation Commission.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

In response to Ms. Georgia Chamberlain of Rochester's letter, I must set the record straight. Ms. Chamberlain has been misled. All her statements about me are incorrect.

Ms. Chamberlain asserts I have made personal attacks on board members. I have never made a personal attack on any member of the Marion Conservation Commission at any time. I have never witnessed another member make an attack at a meeting. The only personal attack of record is the one Dennis Luttrell, the paid Executive Director of the Buzzards Bay Action Committee, made against me in the newspaper. His motives were political and are not in any way a reflection of my service.

Ms. Chamberlain asserts I have not attended on-site property meetings at any time over the past six years. This is false. My attendance to on-sites has been faithful. In the past six months I have been unable to attend Sunday morning meetings with the group. However, I faithfully attend public hearings and visited sites independently

Ms. Chamberlain asserts that I have never attended MACC (Massachusetts Association of Conservation Commissioners) annual meetings. This is false. I have attended most of them and a score of other seminars hosted by the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) and neighboring commissions. I have attended more training seminars than any other volunteer presently sitting on the board.

I am sorry that Dennis Luttrell and Ms. Chamberlain of Rochester are unhappy with my reappointment. I am gratified that the elected Board of Selectmen of Marion appreciate my service. And I thank the newspaper for the opportunity to set the record

All proceeds from raffle tickets sold were donated to New Bedford's Child and Family Service. The following prizes were awarded: Charcoal Portrait by David Todd III, donated by The Hay Loft went to Joseph Cerulli; $100 of Playmobil or Brio went to Daune Smith; $100 gift certificate to Panache went to Donna Ingalls; $100 gift certificate to Opulent Owl went to Mary Chadwick; $100 gift certificate to Sowle the Florist went to Polly Hood; and $100 Gourmet Gift Basket from Cerulli's went to Sue Roylance. Congratulations to all the winners and the vendors at the Ropewalk Mall!

CHECK OFFER WITH CARE

Your home has been for sale, inspected and the latest enthusiastic prospect presents you with an "offer" to buy. Review this offer with care. It's an extremely important part of the sale.

Are all the names correct? Is the property correctly described? Is the mortgage information accurate? Can you move by the possession date? Is the purchase price satisfactory? Then double check your calculations to be sure you know how much cash you will receive. If you have any doubts about points contained in the offer do not sign it until they have been completely removed from your mind.

The offer to purchase is binding on the purchaser for the amount of time stated in the offer. You can accept it without change. You can let it expire, or you can consider changes. If you change anything in the offer you are reversing the process and making an "offer to sell" to purchaser who then has the same options.

Before you sign, be certain that it clearly states all the points of agreement because the sale will be according to the letter of that script.

Call Bob at Fisher & Rocha, Inc., 758-6738 or stop in at our office at 17 Fairhaven Road, Mattapoisett.

container manufactured by United Technologies under the trade name "The Gas Dock" that is presently on the market. The container has a capacity of twenty-five (25) gallons and is primarily intended for marine fueling. Literature from the company describes additional applications such as dispensing from the back of a truck and household use.

Insofar as marine fueling is concerned, 527 CMR 15.04 (4) permits flammable and combustible liquids to be kept in containers designed, constructed or adapted for such purposes when approved by the Marshall. Be advised "The Gas Dock" container has not been issued approval by the Fire Marshall's office for marine fuel dispensing.

In accordance with 527 CMR 5.10 (7), portable gasoline containers must not exceed seven (7) gallons capacity and must be approved for such use by the State Fire Marshall.

Chief Scott also advises residents that rags which have been used to clean with either linseed oil or teak oil are very flammable and should be hand rinsed or washed and hung out to air dry. Both substances are very combustible and should not be placed in washing machines, dryers, or even left in hampers with other laundry.
